Banking for generations

Here's what to do.

Thank you for choosing Westpac. We've been helping Fijians with their banking needs since 1901.

We look forward to you being a valued customer.

To open a Westpac personal bank account, you'll need to provide us with a signed and completed personal account opening form, along with some current identification documents.

We need to verify the following:

1. Full name
2. Date of birth
3. Residential address
4. Occupation
5. Photo identification and signature
6. Citizenship
7. Income source documentation

To ensure these 7 points above are verified, we need at least two primary ID documents or one primary plus two secondary ID documents.

All documents must be original and current unless specified. If additional documents are required, we'll let you know. Please see the ID checklist below.

Tax Identification Number is mandatory.

- Joint Fiji Revenue Customs Services (FRCS) and FNPF ID Card or TIN letter

Primary identification.

- Current passport
- Birth certificate
- Marriage certificate
- Citizenship certificate
- Current driver's licence
- Fiji voter identification card

Secondary identification.

- Recent pay slip or employer letter confirming, occupation, job title and income
- Utility bills with your name and residential address
- Government or employer photo ID card
- Student ID card or letter from your education institution
- Land or property ownership documents
- Life insurance policies
- Municipal rates statement

Additional identification required for non-residents.

- Current passport or other travel documents
- Current work/business visa or other documents issued by Fiji Immigration Department
- Current employment or student document issued by your employer or your education institution
