Are you a thinker? A doer? Are you someone who'd jump at the chance to be treated like a professional?

If so, you might be just the type of person we're looking for. When you join the Westpac Pacific Graduate Program you'll be rewarded by working on real jobs from day one, have a competitive salary, healthy work-life balance and all the support you'll need to kick-start the career you want.

Who we are

Westpac is not just Australia's first bank, we are Australia's first company, founded in 1817. Westpac's Pacific business is a division of Westpac that delivers banking and financial services to the Pacific region. Westpac's role in the Pacific is also about being a part of the stability and security of a sound financial system, playing an integral role in the local economy and contributing to the social and environmental well-being of local communities.

Our vision and values

At Westpac our vision is to be one of the world's great companies, helping our customers, communities and people to prosper and grow. We will do this by being easy to do business with, having deep relationships with our customers, and having a strong reputation across the Pacific.

Who we're looking for

Quite simply, we want thinkers and doers. People who are keen to get stuck in, who are courageous and driven to succeed. People who are confident in building relationships and communicating with our diverse customers and employees. We want people who are passionate, have an interest in financial services and feel connected to our vision and values. We celebrate diversity, that's why we recruit from a wide range of degree disciplines to build a better, stronger and more vibrant business.

Employee benefits

Because we only want the best of the best it's only fair we return the favour with some of the best financial and lifestyle benefits. Such as highly competitive remuneration packages, provision of quality uniforms, and an employee profit sharing plan so you can invest in your own future. You can also benefit from discounts rates on personal loans, credit cards, home loans and other lifestyle benefits.

Our graduate program

Join the Westpac Pacific Graduate Program and you'll be rewarded with a broad range of exciting experiences and opportunities across several business areas. Opportunities that will challenge your mind and give you the chance to find where your passions lie and follow them through. At every stage you'll be mentored by some of the very best and backed by a company with people at the very heart of everything it does.

Training opportunities

We provide a nurturing environment tailored to help you develop necessary professional and technical skills for success within Westpac. All grads participate in a training & experience curriculum for the first 12 months. This program is structured into 4 rotations lasting 3 months each. You will gain invaluable experience as you rotate across different areas developing important connections and networks along the way. Rotations are possible in areas of:

- Retail and Business Banking
 - Operations
 - Risk Management
- Finance and Strategy
 - Technology

Our locations

Our graduate positions are located in both Fiji and Papua New Guinea. Each location provides local roles for local graduates
